

GLENN F. AMSBERRY, ASSOCIATE

EXPERIENCE

- Peter R. Thom and Associates Inc., Associate. 1987 - Present.
- Acalanes Unified High School district. Teacher of automotive technology: since 1965 I have been employed as an instructor of introductory and advanced automotive mechanics, small gas engine, power mechanics, and motorcycle mechanics at the high school and adult school as well as R.O.P. (Regional Occupation Program) levels.
- Mechanic: I have operated my own shop and operated or managed several service stations. I have extensive experience in emission controls, engines, front suspension and steering, brakes, transmissions and drive train, body and paint, electrical, computer controls and accessories, and welding.

EDUCATION

- San Jose State University. Received B. A. with honors in Industrial Arts, 1965.
- Factory training: Ford Motor Company, General Motors, Chrysler, Volkswagen, Honda motorcycles and automobiles, Nissan, Clayton Dynamometer, Toyota, Mitsubishi and others.

ACTIVITIES

- C.A.T. - California Automotive Teachers Association
- N.A.C.A.T. - National Association of college Automotive Teachers
- C.I.T.E. - California Industrial Technology Education Consortium, currently chairman of Automotive cluster in region 5
- Phi Delta Kappa - National honor society for education
- Epsilon Pi Tau - National honor society for industrial technology education
- A.E.R.A. - Automotive Engine Rebuilders Association
- N.E.A. - National Education Association
- C.T.A. - California Teachers Association
- A.E.A. - Acalanes Education Association
- N.I.A.S.E. - National Institute for Automotive Service excellence, currently certified as Master Automotive Technician in all eight automotive areas, and body and paint
- N.A.T.E.F. National Automobile Technician Education Foundation

Glenn F. Amsberry